

Among Our Family and Friends

- By now most of you know that Sue Nelson died recently, and rather unexpectedly for most of us. Sue and Paul have been members and backbones of this church for many years and made many contributions. I will miss Sue with her warm smile and always positive chat, and as Nancy Pellegrini said the other day in Church, her 'bright spirit'. A service for her will be held here in the church on November 4 at 11:00 a.m.
- Connie Hayes lost both her parents in the last few months (Mom in June and Dad in September). Connie says her family is adjusting to this loss and are learning how to get along without their parents. What a change for all of them after all these years. Mom is Mavis Rains; Dad is Dr. Theodore Rains. Connie worked with her Dad at High Purity Standards all these years. The company turned out in great numbers to honor him at his memorial service recently.
- In Late September, Beth Warner and Joey and Kate Sherman remembered Zach's 23rd birthday with flowers. It was a touching reminder for us all about the frailty of life – even for the young.
- Cisco and Anne Lindsey recently gave flowers in Church in memory of Anne's father, Paul W Keve, who died 1998. This reminds me of how memories of our loved ones who have passed reappear for years and years.
- Mary Ann Hughston broke a wrist in a fall recently. It was her right arm. She says her biggest problem at this writing is she doesn't have two hands to do her hair and make-up!
- In October Sandra and James Selvitelli celebrated their 12th anniversary. Sandra says, "We still get together with a wink and a smile." Good for them!
- Jen Bennett and Sue Weller have been married for five years. Danny married them here in our church. Congratulations to them as well!
- And Barbara and Stan Goldberg just celebrated their 45th anniversary with lovely flowers. Six kids: Yours, Mine and Ours! Our best to them as well.
- Sunday, October 8th was a celebration of Janet Watts's 20 years of loving and nurturing to our kids. Many of our children who grew up under Janet's attention, caring and education have fledged and are out making their mark on the world. We do miss her.

- In October, Jo and Lee Westbrook spent a weekend at the Fall Institute at The Mountain, a place they (and many others) have enjoyed for years. The Westbrocks would be pleased to tell you about why they enjoy The Mountain so much and what it offers.
