

The Eden Keepers

"Who loves a garden still his Eden keeps."

Eden Keepers

Isn't winter in Charleston interesting? We get several balmy days, which remind us of why we live here, and then we get hit with a blast from the arctic, which makes us wonder how northerners survive months of this stuff.

Our December work party came amid a mild, tho' not balmy, spell. However, within a week it was cold and wet, a good day not to be working outside.

Ten Eden Keepers gave the churchyard a final touch-up just prior to our Bicentennial Celebration. Our efforts were worth it as the garden received many accolades from members, friends, and guests. Working that day were Sarah Cothran, Laura Moses, Ed Stephens, Tamara Eberlein, Tom Hartry, Tom Wiedemann, Suzi DeMerell, Krystina Deren, Bob Jontos, and Fran Ennis. At noon, a tasty lunch was enjoyed by all.

The next work party was planned for January 6th but has been cancelled due to inclement weather.

See you in February, and cross your fingers for pleasant weather.
